

3. Title II of the Act.

As stated by the Senate Report on S. 1732, the "fundamental purpose" of Title II of the Act" is directed at meeting a problem of human dignity; and such an objective has been and can readily be achieved by congressional action based on the commerce power of the X Constitution. In addition, though, the Committee is convinced that the measure is a sound approach to the economic burdens created by discrimination in public establishments. "

Report of the Committee on Commerce, United States Senate, on S. 1732, Report 872, 88th Cong., 2d Sess. p. 17.