WEDNESDAY, February 28th, 1866.

Convention met pursuant to adjournment. The President being sick, the Convention was called to order by the Secretary. Prayer by the chaplain. Roll called; quorum present.

The President being absent, the Convention proceeded to ballot for a President pro tem.

Mr. Whitfield nominated Mr. Henderson.
Mr. Hart nominated Mr. Dickson.
Mr. Davis of Webb nominated Mr. Hart.
Messrs. Taylor of Fannin, Davis of Webb and Bumpass were appointed Tellers.

On telling the vote, it appeared that Mr. Henderson had received 20 votes, Mr. Dickson 51 votes, and Mr. Hart 2 votes.

Mr. Dickson, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared by the Secretary duly elected President pro tem. of the Convention.

Messrs. Shepard and McCormack conducted the President to the chair.

The journal of yesterday was read and adopted.

Mr. Roberts, chairman of the committee on the Judiciary, made the following report:

COMMITTEE ROOM, February 28th, 1866.

To the Hon. J. W. Throckmorton, President of Convention:

The Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the resolution of the gentleman from Dallas, (Mr. Record,) in relation to the establishment of a rule of evidence where Confederate paper currency was meant by the expression of "dollars and cents," in a contract, have had the same under consideration, and request me to report the accompanying ordinance, and recommend it to the favorable consideration of the House. They do not recommend it to establish a new rule, so much as to settle the rule of evidence beyond question—which is respectfully submitted.

*Be it Ordained by the Convention, That in all suits now pending, or that may hereafter be instituted, upon contracts in writing made since the 2d day of March, 1861, and prior to the 2d day of July, 1865, payable in dollars and cents, parol testimony may be introduced to show the intention of the parties to the transaction; and where it shall be made to appear that dollars in Confederate paper currency was intended, its marketable value at the time of maturity shall be recovered. And the same rule shall obtain where such currency was the consideration of a contract which was otherwise valid.

Received, to come up in order.

Mr. Randolph made the following report:

C O M M I T T E E R O O M, February 28th, 1866.

To the Hon. J. W. Throckmorton, President of the Convention: The committee on Engrossed and Enrolled Ordinances have examined the ordinance defining the 8th Article of the Constitution, and find the same correctly engrossed.

Accepted.

Mr. Ball offered the following preamble and resolution: Whereas, there are a large number of citizens of the State of Texas whose business is exclusively stock raising, and many of them living in that portion of the State that is not adapted to farming; and, in consideration of the fact that there is no provision made in the Constitution for the encouragement of that class of men to engage in the business of stock raising as an occupation: therefore,

Be it Resolved by the Convention, That the committee on the General Provisions of the Constitution of the State be instructed to inquire into the expediency of reserving from forced sale and execution, in addition to the present exemption, at least 300 head of cattle, 50 head of horses, and 500 head of sheep.

Adopted.

Mr. Latimer moved to suspend the rules, in order to proceed to the consideration of the ordinance of secession.
