About Assault & Flattery

The Assault and Flattery program, climaxing each year's Law Day, was born with the original Law Day program in 1953 which was held in the Texas Union Building.

All organizations in the Law School participate in the evening of fun and join in lampooning the peculiarities of all projects and people who call Townes Hall their home.

Talent from the Forty Acres, or UT's main campus, serves to supplement the skits and to entertain our visitors-who often miss some of the humor in the presentations since the majority of the program is slanted toward the Townes Hallers.

The evening is one of good-natured caricature and hilarity - and is always thoroughly enjoyed by those who enter into the spirit of the occasion.
