Friday Evening
April 5, 1963

On behalf of the Law Day Committee, it is our pleasure to welcome you to the 11th Annual Assault and Flattery production. Assault and Flattery is an unique presentation of the University of Texas School of Law and an event of which law students should be proud.

The original Assault and Flattery was conceived as a revue to bring Faculty and students together for one night of mirth and frivolity. Just about anything goes and this year is no exception.

Many hours have gone into the writing, practicing and preparing for this year's Assault and Flattery. Interventions have been added and all concerned have come up with a program which will please and we hope delight everyone in the audience---whether he be Faculty member, law student or visitor.

We sincerely hope you will enjoy this evening's Assault and Flattery and will make plans to be here again next year.
