

(A)

WEST'S CITE STORY

Song: ASSAULT and FLATTERY
Curtain Opens
Stage Lights On
NO SPOT
No - screams
Janie - curtain stage

Solo: Texas Law School, Our heart's devotion

Strike back - the can
Let it respond to our motion ← 3 belts side

Always the hot air blowing 2- P.S.
1- L.S.

Always the population growing - Response

And the pressures growing mounty

With the freshmen screaming

At their grades demeaning

We like the stage and theatre ← you know we do -

Sit back, relax

Be creative.

Chorus: You came for fun to Assault Flattery
We'll try to please, but won't guarantee
If you don't like tonite what you see

Janie
Martin
Carla
Katherine

Solo: We will still keep your admission fee. Martin - separate if you can

Solo: Buying a ticket is so nice
Like buying an outline for half price

L.S.
the girl - carry, give me
the hand

Solo: Six weeks of classes are down the drain

L.S.
- gonna - carry, half price

Solo: But recognition, you have gained - please - up reference

(a - last name: Gilbert)
Janie
Martin
Katherine
Janie