Our first baby boy, born Tuesday, the twenty-eighth day of November, nineteen hundred and eleven, at ten minutes past seven o’clock in the morning, in Room No. 10, of St. Joseph’s Infirmary, Crawford Street, between Galbraith and Prince Avenues, Houston, Texas.

Dr. Charles E. Bruhl, physician, and Miss Willie May Hunt, nurse, were only persons present except the father.