Birmingham, Alabama 35294

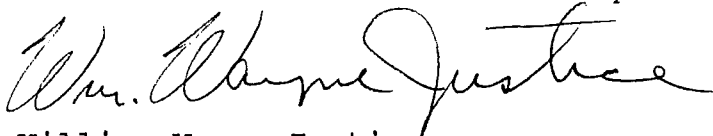

Dear Professor McGovern:

Thank you for your letter of July 29, 1988, relating to the efforts being made by you and the parties to comply with the interim injunction in Young v. Pierce.

I altogether approve of the steps you have taken to assure compliance. And you are authorized to commence negotiations with persons with computer and data expertise to assist you and the parties in selecting a suitable method for making the data available to the parties.

My best regards.

Sincerely,

William Wayne Justice
Chief Judge
