The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

President Rusk, Anderson, Armstrong of J., Armstrong of R., Baylor, Bache, Brashear, Brown, Caldwell, Cazneau, Clark, Cunningham, Cuney, Darnell, Davis, Evans, Everts, Forbes, Gage, Hemphill, Henderson, Hicks, Hogg, Horton, Howard, Holland, Hunter, Irion, Jewett, Jones, Kinney, Latimer of L., Latimer of R. Mr. Evans, from the minority of the committee on Privileges and Elections, made the following report:

COMMITTEE ROOM, July 12, 1845.

*To the Hon. THOS. J. RUSK,
President of the Convention:*

The undersigned, dissenting from the majority of the committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom was referred the memorial of Horace Bunham, who claims a seat in this Convention, as deputy from the district of country embracing the settlements at and near the forks of the Trinity river, beg leave to report—

That in the opinion of the undersigned, there is no similarity between this case and any other which has been presented to the consideration of this Convention, but that this case involves all the arguments urged in support of those cases, besides many other potent and equitable considerations, the most important of which are—

First,—That owing to the remote and sequestered situation of the settlements at the Forks of the Trinity, the President's Proclamation recommending the Convention, was not received by them until nine days prior to the time therein recommended for holding the election; that the settlements are comprised within a portion of Nacogdoches and Robertson counties; that it is the distance of two hundred and fifty miles from the nearest point in those settlements, to the town of Nacogdoches, (the county seat of Nacogdoches county)—that it is the distance of one hundred and sixty to one hundred and seventy miles from the place at which this election was held, to Franklin, (the county seat of Robertson county,) and that consequently, it was impossible for these voters to comply with the requisition of the President as in his Proclamation is contained; that this disability originated not by their act or consent, but by reason of the shortness of the time between the receipt of the Proclamation and the time therein specified for holding the election.

Second,—That these settlements, from common dangers and common interests, are cemented into, and actually form a distinct community, cut off by stretches of uninhabited, and, in some districts, uninhabitable country, from the several settlements in the surrounding counties: Therefore it is, that neither Nacogdoches or Robertson, have ever extended their civil or political jurisdiction over these settlements.

Thirdly,—The boundary line separating the counties of Fannin, Robertson and Nacogdoches, are so illy marked and defined, that it is frequently a matter of extreme doubt which of these several counties have the jurisdiction.

Fourthly,—These settlements now number over three hundred citizens, and are filling up more rapidly than any other portion of Texas.

It is a mistake, to suppose that this section of the country is represented by the deputies from Nacogdoches and Robertson;—they have but one representative, the memorialist whose claims are now the subject of consideration.

In view of the foregoing considerations, the undersigned recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

L. D. EVANS.

Resolved, That Horace Bunham is entitled to, and that he be permitted to take his seat in this Convention, as deputy from the district of country comprising the settlement at and adjacent to the Three Forks of the Trinity river.

Which was laid on the table, to come up among the orders of the day.

The Convention then proceeded to the rica, in pursuance of a Joint Resolution of the American Congress, entitled a "Joint Resolution for annexing Texas to the United States," approved March 1st, 1845,—in order to establish justice, ensure tranquillity, provide for the common defence, and secure to ourselves and our posterity, the rights of life, liberty and property—acknowledging with grateful hearts the goodness of the great Ruler of the Universe, in affording us an opportunity deliberately and peacefully, without fraud, violence, or surprise, of forming a new Constitution of Government, and devoutly imploring his direction in accomplishing this important object: Do mutually agree with each other to form ourselves into a free and independent State, by the name of the State of Texas, and do ordain and establish the following Constitution."

On motion of Mr. Mayfield, the Preamble was referred to the committee on General Provisions.

On motion of Mr. Hunter, the word "Christians" was stricken out, and the word "religious" inserted before the word "denominations," so as to read "every religious denomination."

The Convention then proceeded to the following, offered as a substitute to the 6th article by the committee :

"And in all prosecutions for libels, the truth may be given in evidence, and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the fact, under the direction of the Court, as in other cases; but the truth shall not avail as a defence, when malice or a corrupt motive is proved."
