FILVAROFF (DAVID B.) PAPERS
Inventory

Extent: 3 linear ft. (7 boxes).

Filvaroff, David B., 1931- . A specialist in civil rights and international law, Filvaroff was professor of law at the University of Texas, 1973-1988. Before coming to Texas, he clerked for Justices Frankfurter and Goldberg, worked in the Justice Department under Nicholas Katzenbach, and taught at the University of Pennsylvania Law School. He left Texas for the deanship at the University of Buffalo School of Law in 1988.

Scope and Content: The Belgrade CSCE meeting files (1976-1978, 3 boxes) are from the Belgrade Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe, 1978, the first follow-up meeting to the 1975 Helsinki Accords. Filvaroff served as senior adviser and consultant to the U.S. delegation headed by Ambassador Arthur Goldberg. The Montreux Meeting of Experts files (1976-1979, 4 boxes) relate to the Montreux (Switz.) Conference on Peaceful Settlement of International Disputes, 1978. Filvaroff was chief of the U.S. delegation to the 35-nation conference, required by the Helsinki Accords, which focused on developing legal mechanisms for settlement of international disputes. Materials include reports, memoranda, notes, conference documents, agendas, official statements, position papers, printed materials, and drafts.

Arrangement: Files are in their original order, generally chronological.
